SELIGSON & CO OMX HELSINKI 25 EXCHANGE TRADED FUND UCITS ETF: POSSIBLE CHANGE RELATED TO THE MANAGEMENT COMPANY

Seligson & Co Fund Management Company's Board of Directors has approved the merger plan to merge the investment company Seligson & Co Plc (its current parent company) into Seligson & Co Fund Management Company Plc (a current 100% owned subsidiary).

The purpose of the arrangement is to streamline corporate structure and governance. The Board of Directors has also decided to apply for an extension of the existing fund management license for investment services and to offer via Seligson & Co Fund Management Company the discretionary asset management services now provided by Seligson & Co Plc.

The execution of the arrangement depends on permissions by relevant authorities and approvals by an extraordinary AGMs of the companies.

The planned merger should not have any impact on Seligson & Co OMX Helsinki 25 Exchange Traded Fund UCITS ETF nor its unit holders.
